STILL SHOPPING?

Are some of you still shopping? OF COURSE! Some haven't started yet. Where do you fit in? If you say you're finished, most of you are wrong.

"A lot of us" have no plan. "A lot of us" have very little to NO money to shop with.

For a season that's "filled with joy", there are "a lot of people" in panic mode. A simple nice gesture or helping hand should be all...

...you need to do to spread good cheer among your family, friends and YES, perfect strangers.

If you're blessed to have a few shopping dollars, it's OK in today's world to buy gift cards, especially from local retailers or grocery stores.

We shouldn't measure people by the gifts that they give, but...by the way they give them is what's valuable.

Lets use this season to treat each other with respect, kindness and wish for good health as we carry out our daily deeds.

Merry Christmas to All!

LOST VILLAGES HISTORICAL SOCIETY

With Christmas just around the corner, you are encouraged to take a drive out to the Lost Villages Museum to see the Christmas lights spread throughout the park. Rick and Gloria Waldroff and their team have done a wonderful job at dressing up the park in colorful lights and beautiful displays. Among the displays, you will see Santa Claus and his reindeer, crafted sixty years ago by Jim Brownell. It was wonderful to see these artifacts on display again.

On Sunday, November 30th, at 2:00 p.m., a capacity crowd enjoyed a wide array of Christmas classic songs, as well as Celtic tunes from the playbook of the Barra MacNeils, featuring Marie Cameron and Ed O'Brien. As in years past, Ed and Marie entertained in fine style, and they created the perfect mood for the journey to Christmas. The church was tastefully decorated for Christmas by Cindy (Cramer) Stuart collected signatures from Bickerstaffe and Jim Brownell, and it featured the traditional Advent wreath and the beautiful crèche, hand-crafted by the members thank Mike and Krista O'Neill for late David Gellately. It was originally crafted for the Queen's Park office of MPP Jim Brownell, and he, in turn, donated it to the Lost Villages Historical Society. The out to enjoy a time of fellowship and afternoon concluded with a time of history.

fellowship at the Lost Villages Brewery, hosted by server Ben Pineault.

The Lost Villages Historical Society/ Archives was the recipient of the much sought after book, "The Hooples of Hoople's Creek", recently. We thank Anne (Schultz) Donnellan for this kind donation. Anne is a former resident of Ingleside, and attended school, there. Her late dad, John Schultz, was the former principal of Osnabruck District High School.

On Monday, December 8th, historical society members and friends gathered at O'Neill's Pub, Long Sault Shopping Centre, for its annual Christmas Luncheon and "Show & Tell". Following a delicious turkey dinner, members displayed and commented on a wide assortment of documents and artifacts. Among the documents was one that was shown and then donated to the Lost Villages Archives by Brenda (Barkley) Poirier and her sister, Barbara (Barkley) Brazeau. In the summer of 1937, Wilda decorated for Christmas by Cindy (Cramer) Stuart collected signatures from Bickerstaffe and Jim Brownell, and it residents of Aultsville, a treasured who's who of names. The historical society the delicious luncheon served to our members and friends. As well, we thank all those from the historical society who came to enjoy a time of fellowship and afternoon concluded with a time of history.

2025 POPPY CAMPAIGN RESULTS

Congratulations, again we have completed our successful Poppy Campaign in South Stormont Township.

With a shortened campaign this year our goal was $12,000.00 and through the generosity of the residents, local businesses and our dedicated volunteer canvassers, including significant participation from the local cadet organizations, we received $13,398.35—well done! A more detailed financial summary will follow at year end.

We would also like to thank and acknowledge the township of South Stormont, the local schools, area service clubs, and the other organizations for their generous donations every year.

A special thank you goes out to those who worked behind the scenes preparing and delivering the poppy boxes you saw in local businesses, organizing the volunteer canvassers, counting donations and all the administration that goes with executing a successful campaign. Without these folks this would not happen.

As your Poppy Fund Chair for the past 8 years, I am continually amazed by the giving spirit in our community and the respect the community shows for the Poppy Fund and the remembrance it represents.

I would also like to mention that our Royal Canadian Legion, Annual Poster Contest in local schools is well under way so stay tuned for these results.

Thank You Again,
Simon Lavallée

CHRISTMAS DINNER AT WHO'S HOUSE

• Everyone was seated around the table as the food was being served. When little Johnny received his plate, he started eating right away.

"Johnny, wait until we've said our prayer," his mother reminded him.

"I don't have to," the little boy replied.

"Of course you do," his mother insisted. "We say a prayer before eating at our house."

"That's at our house," Johnny explained, "but this is Grandma's house and she knows how to cook."

• Q. What is the elf's favourite musical genre?

A. Wrap music

• Q. What do you call a snowman with a six-pack?

For Socially Minded Seniors

Our Christmas Dinner at the Masonic Hall in Ingleside was a delightful evening, featuring excellent food and a trivia game. Over seventy members and guests attended. As we approach the end of another year, the executive would like to thank all our members and volunteers for making our activities possible. We have increased our membership and participation. Our plans for 2026 include offering activities our members enjoy, and even more trips are scheduled. We have musical entertainment and speakers lined up for the early part of next year. If you have not already done so, please consider renewing your membership, which remains at $20 per year. On behalf of the executive committee, please stay safe, and we hope you enjoy the holidays and the family connections they bring.
