DOG DAYS OF SUMMER

The dog days of summer are the hot, sultry days of summer. They are historically the period following the helical rising of the star system Sirius, which Hellenistic astrology connected with heat, drought, sudden thunderstorms, lethargy, fever, mad dogs and back luck.

Does this mean anything to you right now? All this writer can tell you is that it's "HOT". It's not the first heat wave that most of us had to endure but this is the one we're dealing with right now.

Some of you have a pool or your new best friend has one to cool off in.

Others, like myself, still have to "ballet" through the sprinkler.

However it is, that you're dealing with this heat, be sure to stay hydrated and look out for your neighbours' health as well.

STAY COOL!!!

LOST VILLAGES HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Canada Day at Ault Park, site of the Lost Villages Museum, was a resounding success. Once again, Gloria and Rick Waldroff organized a great team of volunteers, and they are to be commended for a job "Well Done". There were activities for all ages, and the park site was certainly buzzing with activities all day! Whether taking in a kid's ride on the miniature train, visiting the quilt show in the Sandtown Church, browsing the wares of the many vendors, along with many other activities, there were smiles in abundance throughout the day. The success of the day was certainly evident with regards to two fundraising events held under the Farran's Point Pavilion. Both the barbecue and Strawberry Social were sold out events, and the delicious treats that were served were enjoyed by many. The historical society wishes to thank the sponsors for Canada Day 2025. Thank you to the Government of Canada and Ontario Power Generation for their generous financial contributions and to Storm Realty for sponsoring the Canada Day cakes, once again.

As was recently announced, this is the final year for the bus tours "Through the Lands of the Lost Villages" hosted by Jim Brownell. Yes, only three bus tours remain, - Sunday, July 20th, August 24th, and September 14. Reservations have been brisk, so you are encouraged to book a spot ASAP. Seat reservations may be made at the Manson-Lapierre store at the museum site (613-534-2197), or check out booking details on the historical society's website. With many weeks behind us as we recovered from the January floods in the basements of the Stuart House and Forbes Memorial Reading Room (Archives), we are happy to report that the Stuart House will open on Thursday, July 17th at 10:00 p.m. Plan a visit to see the revamped displays in the house.

On Wednesday, July 9th, the Friendly Circle Senior Citizens Club held its annual summer barbecue and picnic under the pavilion at the museum site. As they have

FIND THE 6 HIDDEN WORDS ANSWERS

A SPIRITUAL OLD LADY

- There was a little old lady who was very spiritual, who would step on her porch every day, raise her arms to the sky and yell, "PRAISE THE LORD!"

One day, an atheist bought the house next door to her, and he became very irritated with the spiritual lady.

So after a month or so of her yelling "PRAISE THE LORD" from her porch, the neighbour went outside on his porch and yelled back, "THERE IS NO LORD!"

Yet, the little old lady continued.

One cold, wintery day, when the little old lady couldn't get to the store due to snowfall, she went out on her porch, raised her hands up to the sky and said, "Help me Lord, I have no more money, it's cold, and I have no more food."

The next morning, she went outside, and there were three bags of food on her porch, enough to last her a week.

"PRAISE THE LORD!" she yelled.

The atheist stepped out from the bushes and said, "Haha! There is no Lord, I bought those groceries for you!"

The little old lady raised her arms to the sky and yelled, "Praise the Lord, you sent me groceries and you made the Devil pay for them!"

HAPPY ADDITION?

- The newlywed wife said to her husband when he returned from work, "I have great news for you. Pretty soon, we're going to be three in this house instead of two".

Her husband ran to her with a smile on his face and delight in his eyes. He was glowing with happiness and kissing his wife when she said, "I'm glad that you feel this way since tomorrow, my mother moves in with us."

"I'll tell you what," he told her. "In the spirit of compromise, why
