LOST VILLAGES HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Christmas is in the air, and the Lost Villages Museum site at Ault Park will soon be resplendent in colorful lights and brilliant displays. The work in setting things up just doesn't happen, but it takes hours of time by Rick and Gloria Waldroff and their helpers. We thank them for bringing so much joy to those who pass by our museum site. Setting things up is a work in progress, with the official launch on November 30th.

Besides the sparkling lights, Celtic tunes will emanate from the Sandtown Advent Christian Church on Sunday, November 30th at 2:00 p.m. The annual Advent Celtic Christmas Concert will, once again, feature the talented music and songs from Marie Cameron and Ed O'Brien. They will bring a mix of Christmas, old time traditional, and Celtic tunes for all to enjoy. A freewill collection will be taken. Following the concert, a time of fellowship will be held at the Lost Villages Brewery. Seating is limited, but reservations can be made by contacting jim.k.brownell@gmail.com or by calling Jim at 613-534-2423.

I am happy to report that the four gunstock chairs, with caned seats, have been completely restored. As reported earlier, these chairs were damaged in the flood, earlier this year. StripAll, a Long Sault business, stripped and glued the chairs, Jim Brownell refinished them, and the following four members and friends of the historical society caned them: Carol Goddard, Jenn Brownell, John Sliter, and Don Smith. These folks did a superb job, and their work will be on display in the Stuart House in the summer of 2026.

The deadline for registering for the annual Christmas Luncheon and Show & Tell is fast approaching, and please keep the deadline date of December 1st in mind. This event, being held at O'Neill's Pub, is open to members and friends of the historical society. The luncheon on Monday, December 8th will begin with a social half-hour at 11:30 a.m., with a luncheon of turkey and all the trimmings, dessert, and tea/coffee, at noon. To reserve your place at the luncheon, email jim.k.brownell@gmail.com or call Jim at 613-534-2423.

Are you having trouble in finding that special Christmas gift for someone who has everything? Why not give a gift of a membership to the Lost Villages Historical Society. An individual membership is $15.00/annum, or $75.00 for a sustaining/lifetime membership.

Our Christmas Market was a fantastic day! Plenty of vendors and shoppers made it a perfect match. Thanks to everyone who participated: our vendors, donors, shoppers, and volunteers. It's very rewarding when everything comes together. Our next event is the Christmas Dinner, which is now sold out. Our membership is growing, and we hope to keep offering a variety of activities and events for all members. The next meeting is Monday, December 1, at 10 am at the Township Hall. The theme is Christmas, so wear something colourful. There will be our usual soup and cake, along with Christmas bingo with prizes! For those curious enough to ask, drop by for a visit and consider becoming a member, only $20 per year. We have a great lineup of speakers and activities planned for 2026.

CAREFUL WHAT YOU ASK FOR

• A man left for work one Friday afternoon. Instead of going home, he stayed out the entire weekend hunting with the boys and spending all his wages. When he finally got home on Sunday night, he was confronted by his very angry wife. After two hours, she stopped nagging and said, "How would you like it if you didn't see me for two or three days?"

He replied, "That would be fine with me."
Monday went by and he didn't see his wife. Tuesday and Wednesday came and went with the same results. Thursday, the swelling went down just enough for him to see her a little out of the corner of his left eye.

A married couple in their 60's are visited by a fairy who grants them both a wish. "I want to travel round the world with my darling husband" says wife, two tickets for a luxury cruise magically appear in her hand. Husband says: "Sorry but my wish is to have a wife 30 years younger than me." Fairy waves wand and husband becomes 92 ...
Moral of story - men who are ungrateful bastards should remember fairies are female!!!

THAT'S A WRAP

The South Stormont Fun Raisers are wrapping things up at the end of this year. For those who don't know who they are...they are a registered not-for-profit club in South Stormont.

Their mission statement is, "A Community Group dedicated to providing recreational and cultural opportunities to residents and families in the Township of South Stormont."

Since their inception almost four years ago, they have raised close to $15,000.00 for the community in general.

The South Stormont Senior Support Centre and their meals program, Longue Sault Public School lunch program, Long Sault Legion Branch 569, Hospice, Ronald McDonald House, Alzheimer's and others to a lesser extent have all benefitted from this club.

The Fun Raisers have also assisted other groups when called upon to help with their programs. Events like the Senior Support Centre inaugural Outdoor Bingo or parking cars to help Ronald McDonald House with their fundraising efforts towards expansion to their facility in Ottawa.

The Fun Raisers quietly were involved in all of these community events while keeping their focus on the main project, "A Band Shell for South Stormont". A Band Shell will offer a major venue for many other fundraising opportunities for other clubs, schools, fishing derbies, bicycling, movie nights, and much more.

Local businesses should benefit greatly from the influx of tourism.

On Dec. 13 at their final fundraising event "Community Christmas Party", the South Stormont Fun Raisers will be stepping away from their charity work as a group and presenting the Township of South Stormont with a donation of $40,000.00 to start the building of a Band Shell for this community in the future.

If anyone is interested in coming to this event for a turkey dinner and show (until Dec. 5 for dinner) the cost is only $30.00. If you want to come for the presentation and show only, tickets are $15.00. Call or text 613-577-2081.

P.S. Tickets are 80% sold out so don't hesitate.
